WORKSHEET FOR KEEPING YOUR EMPLOYEES MOTIVATED

A motivated employee is a valuable employee - and among the hardest to find. By empowering your team to succeed in their roles you can create a powerful environment for team building, collaboration, excellent customer service and increase in sales.

1. SHARE YOUR BUSINESS VISION

Your vision is a road map for people to see the direction of your business and all the twists and turns along the way. Work with your team to build a shared vision for the culture and future of your business.

What is your company vision for the upcoming year?

2. BE OPEN AND AVAILABLE

This starts with listening, discussing what's going on and providing appropriate forums for feedback. Hold regular meetings with your employees. A good question to regularly ask your team is, 'Is there anything you'd like to see changed?'

How can I be more open and available to my team?

3. THANK EMPLOYEES FOR GOOD WORK

Take the time to celebrate the wins. Highlighting an achievement in the staff meetings will go a long way. Remember to explain your why.

Who can I acknowledge and thank today? and why?

4. BE THE BEST LEADER YOU CAN BE

Attitudes are contagious. Strong leaders set the tone for their business and guide their company - and employees - to be the best they can be. Mentor, inspire and lead your team to do better business everyday. Regularly communicating the values and attitudes to your company will also help employees align with them.

What attitudes and mindsets do strong leaders have and can I embrace them today? How will I do that?
